What does peer-to-peer support look like in the regular classroom?

Inclusive Education · https://inclusionactionontario.ca/docs/what-does-peer-to-peer-support-look-like-in-the-regular-classroom/

Peer-to-peer support is the most overlooked strategy for successfully including students with disabilities in the regular classroom and enriching the classroom experience for all students. It can be a very effective tool to build relationships and improve educational outcomes. You can learn more about the power of peers in this article, “Wide Open Spaces: Maggie’s Story”.